

Hill-Murray School

2012 Vision Statements

Hill-Murray School is the leading Catholic college preparatory education center for the eastern metropolitan and St. Croix Valley areas.

1. The Catholic identity of the school continues as the priority of the school's leadership. The foundation of the Hill-Murray education is based on building the faith community, teaching doctrine, providing opportunities for worship and service to greater community. The principles of Catholic Social Teachings are integrated into all aspects of teaching, learning, and relationships at Hill-Murray School.
2. The Hill-Murray School curriculum, campus culture and community spirit recognize the personal needs, learning styles and unique talents of each student. The hallmark of this community of learners is a school atmosphere that focuses on the positive growth and well being of individual students as each undertakes the challenges of a changing world in a thoughtful, disciplined and moral manner. The college preparatory and cocurricular programs and services offered at Hill-Murray are considered superior.
3. Hill-Murray School attracts, retains, and rewards highly qualified staff committed to the mission of the school. The school offers a competitive compensation package and involves its staff in the decision-making processes as well as in the shaping of school policies and direction.
4. Hill-Murray's on-going facility, classroom and campus improvements fully meet the needs of the programs and services offered, and provide a safe and secure environment for students, staff, and visitors.
5. Hill-Murray is financially secure, operating with balanced budgets. Capital improvements have been undertaken through major gift initiatives. Endowment funds support tuition assistance and capital needs.
