

Academic Scholarships

DOLORES RIGALI BARRETT SCHOLARSHIP

Dolores Barrett (born Pia Dolores Rigali) was committed to her Italian heritage and to the importance of Catholic education. She continually emphasized the importance of studying hard and receiving a good education. She made numerous sacrifices in order to support her children's varied educational, professional and other ambitions. All seven of the Barrett children graduated from Hill-Murray and have college degrees, with many earning advanced degrees. Dolores passed away in 2005. As a lasting legacy to her spirit and commitment, her family would like to help other students attend Hill-Murray. Dolores would be thrilled to be giving something back to both the Twin Cities' Italian community and to a school that has meant so much to her family.

Application Criteria:

- Students in grades 9-12.
- Italian heritage.
- Solid academic standing - resulting in 3.0 GPA or with a demonstrated effort toward reaching that level of academic achievement.

Applicants meeting the above criteria will submit an essay describing what their Italian heritage means to them. Renewal students should write an essay about the things they've learned and observed the past year at H-M. Scholarships are renewable annually. Students must reapply.

Amount: Amount to be determined annually.
