

Academic Scholarships

MaryEllen (Dufresne) and Jim Weber Scholarship

As proud graduates of Hill-Murray School, MaryEllen and Jim are grateful for their Hill-Murray education and experience. They want to help other young people to experience the same. MaryEllen and Jim hope the scholarship recipients will utilize the Hill-Murray experience – education, extra-curriculars, service, and leadership opportunities.

The Weber's goal is to support Hill-Murray's mission to empower students during their high school journey by leading with their heads and hearts to make a positive difference in the world.

This scholarship is intended to support students who will lean in and actively seek to experience Hill-Murray by focusing on;

Community: be a positive addition to the HM community

Integrity: in everything you do both in and out of school.

Engage and Lead: Be Bold

Spirituality: seek balance in all areas of your life – mental, physical, emotional, and spiritual, do the inner work as well as the outer

Service: pay it forward in some way

Scholarship Criteria:

- Applicant must demonstrate financial need per TADS
- Students in grades 9-12 may apply
- Applicants should submit an essay sharing "What they are looking forward to in the next year at Hill-Murray and how might leading with your head and heart influence your experience?"

Amount: 4 awards will be given annually. Amount to be determined annually. Scholarship awards are renewable.

Click the links below to learn more about MaryEllen and Jim Weber's books

MaryEllen Weber:

During her time at Hill-Murray School, MaryEllen was a member of the National Honor Society. She developed confidence through her involvement in extra-curricular activities and a love of learning and life-long friendships. MaryEllen Weber, Author (growingawakebooks.com)

Jim Weber:

During his time at Hill-Murray School, Jim Weber self-financed his education and took advantage of many opportunities including sports, student council, theatre, newspaper and more. Hill-Murray was a springboard for leadership throughout his career.

<http://jimweber.org/>